4. The evidence against the defendant, although the least significant factor in making detention decisions, is very strong.

5. Defendant has a history of failures to appear.

6. There are no conditions or combination of conditions other than detention that will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained and shall be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

(4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 27th day of April, 2017.
